AO 472 (Rev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial
Significant family or other ties outside the United States Lack of legal status in the United States Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration Prior failure to appear in court as ordered Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement Use of alias(es) or false documents Background information unknown or unverified Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION: The defendant has waived his right to a detention hearing in the District of Nevada so that he may have a full detention hearing in the Eastern District of New York. Additionally, there is no verified information regarding the defendant's background. The defendant has no verified employment and has reported that he is unemployed. The defendant has no background. The defendant has no verified employment and has reported that he is unemployed. The defendant has no ties to Las Vegas other than an arrest that occurred here over the weekend. The defendant has an unstable residence. The defendant has been living in Las Vegas in an Airbnb for at least part of this month. The defendant was unable to provide the address for that Airbnb, so it has been unverified. In any event, the defendant told Pretrial Services that he was planning on moving from that Airbnb. The defendant has no financial or property ties to this community or to New York. The defendant has prior failures to appear. The defendant has an outstanding warrant out of New York which led to an arrest in Arizona. According to Pretrial Services, the defendant has used multiple aliases and has used at least one different date of birth. As a result, the Court finds that there are no conditions or combination of conditions that the Court could fashion at this time to reasonably assure the defendant's future appearance in Court. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the defendant is detained pending transfer and further proceedings in the Eastern District of New York so that he may have a full detention hearing when he arrives in the prosecuting district.
Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention
The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
